- High levels of clean energy
- Proper fluid balance and electrolyte replenishment
- Good muscle contraction

- Superior antioxidant support with Green Tea Extract

It has only 15 calories per serving, and no artificial dyes, flavors or sweeteners.

With the addition of Alovéa AE (Acemannan Extract), it also helps activate the immune system.

DID YOU KNOW?

Adenosine Triphosphate (ATP) is called the "unit of currency" for energy transfer between cells. ElevATP® supports the body in boosting "clean energy" at the cellular level (see back page for details). Most energy drinks create "dirty energy" by overstimulating your adrenal glands, spiking your blood sugar, and/or building up lactic acid and free radical damage (oxidative stress). This dirty energy can result in adrenal fatigue. Alovéa Fuel lets you enjoy clean energy without artificial stimulants.

ACEMANNAN'S SYNERGISTIC IMPACT

The active ingredients in Alovéa Fuel have their own validated health benefits. But it is the synergistic effect of combining them with the most powerful immune-balancing Acemannan fractions in our proprietary ingredient, Alovéa AE (Acemannan Extract), that helps achieve such phenomenal integrative health and support.

Alovéa Fuel™ can support our Customers and Partners with the most advanced nutritional support for healthier living.
